Jesus Is Waiting for You

"The Church and the world have a great need for eucharistic worship. Jesus awaits us in this sacrament of love. Let us not refuse the time to go to meet him . . ."
- Pope St. John Paul I

Our Mother of Mercy Adoration Chapel is open daily from 7:30 a.m. to 9 p.m. As you can see from the chart below, Guardians (people who commit to spending an hour with our Lord at a set time each week) are still needed during many of these hours. Nevertheless, we will begin overnight adoration on Wednesdays, starting with Ash Wednesday, March 2.

Please consider committing to spend just one hour each week with Jesus in his eucharistic presence.

PARISH MISSION

The parish mission this week draws our community together for a common spiritual exercise. For three days (Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday), we gather for Mass and spiritual conferences that aim to renew, revitalize, and intensify our relationship with God. Father Gabriel Torretta, O.P., is our mission preacher who will guide and encourage us to live in the presence of God each day.

In the promotional remarks about the mission, we read, “St. Augustine says that God is nearer to us than we are to ourselves—and everyone wants to believe it's true. But with the business of ordinary life, the roar of conflicting ideologies, and worries about money, politics, and war, it can be hard to know what it really means to have God so close. Over the course of three nights, Father Gabriel Torretta, O.P., will explore different aspects of this urgent subject.” All parish meetings have been suspended for the days of the mission so that everyone can participate. Priests will be available for sacramental confession in the evenings. Participating in this mission will be a wonderful way of preparing for Holy Week and Easter. I encourage everyone to attend and receive the graces of this spiritual exercise. Additional information is found elsewhere in this bulletin.

Last weekend, I announced my resignation as pastor, effective May 1, 2022. Not everyone was present for the announcement, so my letter to the parish is reprinted here so that everyone will have the same information.

March 25, 2022

Dear Parishioners:

Nearly two years have passed since I began my assignment here at St. Gertrude. I arrived at a time of crisis in the parish and during the tumultuous time of the pandemic. The parish has experienced a lot of change on the staff during my tenure; and there has been a lot of stress as we managed the protocols of the pandemic and its impact on parish life. As we continue to rebuild and revitalize the life of the parish, the leadership that is needed is a high priority.

For the past number of months, the demands of duties and responsibilities as pastor have been affecting my health. These health issues are having a negative impact on the effectiveness of my leadership role as pastor.

With the support of the provincial and my local superior, to whom I have an obligation to be obedient, I am resigning as pastor of St. Gertrude effective May 1, 2022. I know this comes as a shock and disappointment to many. This is not an easy decision, and I am saddened that it must be made, but the life, renewal, and administration of the parish should not be hindered by my current health concerns.

I want to make it clear that my resignation as pastor is not an indication of vocation questions or some impropriety. There is no one to blame. The decision to resign is freely mine made in consultation with the provincial, my local superior, a spiritual director, and a counselor. Each has supported me in prayer, listening, and the recommendation that I need to attend to my personal health.

A new pastor has been named by the provincial and appointed by the archbishop. He is Father John Paul Walker, O.P. He is 51 years old and 20 years a priest. He has previous experience as a pastor at St. Mary's Church in New Haven, CT, and campus ministry at Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore, MD. Father will arrive the first week of May and preach at all the weekend Masses of May 7-8.

With Father John Paul's approval, I will remain at St. Gertrude through June to support the transition of leadership and to assist in the parish as needed. My love for the parish has not waned and I am grateful that I can remain with you for the near future. Please pray for me.

I ask you please to pray also for Father John Paul and for the parish. We all know that change and transition are never easy. With God's grace, the parish will have all the help it needs to persevere into a future that belongs to Christ.

Let us love one another and pray for each other,

Fr. George, O.P.

Father George P. Schommer, O.P.

FROM THE DIARY OF ST. MARIA FAUSTINA KOWALSKA

Although I was ill, I made up my mind to make a Holy Hour today as usual. During that hour, I saw the Lord Jesus being scourged at the pillar. In the midst of this frightful torture, Jesus was praying. After a while, He said to me, “There are few souls who contemplate My Passion with true feeling; I give great graces to souls who meditate devoutly on My Passion.” (Diary, #737)

COMPASSION & KINDNESS

In today's Gospel, Jesus is the model of compassion and kindness. He shows us how to be merciful and nonjudgmental. Let us pray for the grace to take up our own cross and to follow Jesus through death to new life. When we give to the poor, God indeed pours his love, peace, and mercy into our hearts and into the hearts of those suffering in poverty.
