ST. GERTRUDE CHURCH

ON CORPUS CHRISTI AND A FAREWELL TO
FR. CLEMENT

Today, we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (in Latin, Corpus Christi). In this celebration we recall the primary sacrament which Jesus Himself entrusted to His Church and commanded that it be celebrated in memory of His saving Passion and death on the Cross. We learn from the Catechism that “the Eucharist is ‘the source and summit of the Christian life.’ The other sacraments, and indeed all ecclesiastical ministries and works of the apostolate, are bound up with the Eucharist and are oriented toward it. For in the blessed Eucharist is contained the whole spiritual good of the Church, namely Christ Himself, our Pasch”(CCC 1324). Every time the Mass is celebrated, the real presence and saving work of Christ comes to us and is received by us in Holy Communion. He is the nourishment of our souls and fills us with His grace so that we can grow in virtue and holiness.

For our ongoing sanctification and the enhancement of our personal relationship with Jesus, “the Catholic Church has always offered and still offers to the Sacrament of the Eucharist the cult of adoration, not only during Mass, but also outside of it, reserving the consecrated hosts with the utmost care, exposing them to the solemn veneration of the faithful, and carrying them in procession”(CCC 1378).

As a parish, we have the great privilege to have the Our Lady of Mercy Perpetual Adoration Chapel. In this sacred space, we dwell in the Eucharistic Presence of the Lord in silent prayer. He is present and waits for us to come to Him. All parishioners – in fact, everyone – is invited to come and spend this time with the Lord. His Presence and our worship of Him will bring renewal to lives and to our parish. His blessings are available in abundance. We have only to come and receive them.

When the Archbishop gave permission for this chapel, he did so with the understanding that there will always be people praying in Adoration before the Blessed Sacrament. The Sacrament can never be left alone in the monstrance. The hours of the chapel have been limited since its reopening last October because of a lack of volunteers willing to commit to extended hours, especially overnight. We need a minimum of 2 people for every hour, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Sign up by calling 561-5954, ext.

2136 or at the website: stgertrude.org/adoration. When we get a commitment for all the hours, we can then restore the perpetual nature of the chapel. Please consider making time for the Lord in your life to pray in His holy presence.

On this day, Fr. Clement Dickie bids his farewell to the parish as he transfers to a new assignment as parochial vicar at St. Joseph Church in New York City. On behalf of the parish, I express gratitude for his pastoral ministry in so many ways around the parish. Particularly, he is to be commended for his service as administrator of the parish during an incredibly challenging time of vacancy in the office of pastor in a time of pandemic. We pray that God will bless him abundantly and continue to use his gifts to bring the presence and truth of Jesus to others.

Let us love one another and pray for each other,

Fr. George, O.P.

FROM THE DIARY OF ST. MARIA FAUSTINA KOWALSKA

O Blessed Host, in whom is contained the fire of purest love which blazes forth from the bosom of the Eternal Father, as from an abyss of infinite mercy for us, and especially for poor sinners... O Blessed Host, in whom are contained all the sentiments of the most sweet Heart of Jesus toward us... O Blessed Host, our only hope in all the sufferings and adversities of life... O Blessed Host, our only hope in the longing and pain in which no one will understand us... O Blessed Host, I trust in You when the burdens are beyond my strength and I find my efforts are fruitless. O Blessed Host, I trust in You when storms toss my heart about and my fearful spirit tends to despair... O Blessed Host, I trust in You when Your judgments will resound over me; it is then that I will trust in the sea of Your mercy. (Diary, #356)

ST. GERTRUDE SCHOOL STUDENTS ENJOY THE END-OF-THE-YEAR FESTIVITIES

Wednesday, May 26 was our last day of school. Father George celebrated Mass for the entire school. Congratulations to Mrs. Nancy Flammer, who completed her 26th year of teaching and retired this year. Mrs. Nolte and Mrs. Normand attended our end-of-the-year Mass also and received thank-you gifts from students.

Students enjoyed field day and the Bulldog bash. Even the rain couldn't stop the end-of-the-year celebration with the tradition of the brothers throwing the water balloons from the rooftops!! We hope everyone enjoys a safe and restful summer!

A STURDY SHELTER

BY MR. LAWAIN MCNEIL, O.P.

The writer of Sirach says, “A faithful friend is a sturdy shelter: he that has found one has found a treasure. There is nothing so precious as a faithful friend, and no scales can measure his excellence. A faithful friend is an elixir of life; and those who fear the Lord will find him.”

As Fr. Clement leaves for his next assignment, I am grateful that God lent us him for a time at St. Gertrude. Personally, I am thankful that I found a friend that is a sturdy shelter, a treasure and one in which the scales cannot measure his excellence. I can say in agreement with the writer of Sirach that his spiritual friendship with me is an elixir of life.

When I reflect on Fr. Clement’s time at St. Gertrude, what comes to mind is the beauty and importance of spiritual friendships and how he is the exemplar of true friendship.

The struggle for perfection is a lifetime of work that demands fidelity and persistence because of the many obstacles one faces in their walk with God. Even heroic saints face discouragement as they seek the life of perfection in the realization of their human foibles and weakness. It is evident in the lives of the saints that spiritual friendships offer guidance, encouragement, and inspiration in the soul’s daily walk with Jesus Christ.

One of the greatest rewards of true virtue and the sure mark of a noble soul is friendship; it is a rare and divine thing since it is often by a virtuous friendship that one is inspired to practice the good and to overcome the sin of self.

I am reminded of the importance and necessity of true spiritual friendships and how a spiritual friendship can lead one closer to God. Spiritual friendships are not only crucial but necessary if one is to reach that summit that God calls every Christian to reach; the call for every Christian is perfection in which the soul is transformed by the union with God.

Spiritual friendships are sincere and patient to the point of heroism and have complete unfamiliarity with duplicity or hypocrisy. Spiritual friendships draw us deeper in the desire for God and are the source of mutual aid to this union with Him.

Lastly, spiritual friendships are good and holy because one can sincerely open their hearts with the intimate confidence of receiving prudent advice and counsel. They are beneficial because they offer sympathetic corrections regarding one’s defects since what is at stake is one’s holiness and spiritual well-being. Whether facing the daily trials or sorrows of life, spiritual friendship offers instruction, wisdom, and guidance.

Thank you, Fr. Clement for the model of spiritual friendship that you shared with me and so many others at St. Gertrude. You will be missed.

ASK A PRIEST: WHAT'S BEEN YOUR FAVORITE PART OF BEING A PRIEST AT ST. GERTRUDE'S?

BY FR. CLEMENT DICKIE, O.P.

Serving Jesus Christ. I don't mean this as a copout answer to a question that is a type I like to avoid – the self-referential – but in relative earnest. Being a priest has been the part of my life where I have most realized that my own personality, skills, and contribution are secondary to what God does with me.

I realized this when I became a deacon. We have a custom in our province of serving in a parish in or around D.C. for two years, even though we are deacons for only 14 months. For the first part of our first year, we help the deacon ahead of us, and learn the ropes from them. My 7 months in the parish as an acolyte, I spent teaching R.C.I.A. and distributing the Blessed Sacrament – acolytes are automatically Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion. I tried to greet parishioners after Mass, but it was awkward. No one really wanted to talk to me, they were looking to see their priest after Mass. A week after ordination to the diaconate, when I returned to the parish – and preached for the first time – everyone wanted to shake hands on the way out. I realized that although I'm personally quite uninteresting, ordination itself gives the people a certain contact with Christ that they seek out.

I have encountered that same thing writ large in my time at St. Gertrude. People have thanked me for things that I didn't even realize I was doing. Moreover, there are people who have, especially in the last few weeks, claimed that I have been an important part of their lives that I have only seen at Mass and on the way in and out of church.

These things are not my doing. I am inadequate to the task before me. The privilege of being a priest, especially at a large active church like St. Gertrude is being able to bring Christ to others. He is the one making this impact, because I haven't the skills or the patience myself.

The support and welcome that I have received in my 4 1/2 years here have been a great buttress as undeserved as it has been. It has been a joy to be with you in good times and a privilege to share the difficulties.

"Ask a priest" will be a regular format for our Holy Teaching section in the coming months. Submit your own question to bulletin@stgertrude.org for one of our Dominican priests to answer in the bulletin!
